

1. Read a pair of Shakespearean scenes. Read carefully and slowly.
2. You will annotate both scenes from Shakespeare for ONE of the following:
 - Word play, puns, metaphors with double meaning
 - Insults as romantic banter
 - Ridiculousness of love
 - Strong female characters
3. Put both annotations side by side and compare and contrast. How are these two scenes similar? How are they different? Make a Venn diagram.
4. Answer ONE of the following in a well-written response (2-4 paragraphs) using quotations from both scenes:

What do these scenes show us about Shakespeare's opinion about marriage or relationships?

What does this say about Elizabethan humor?
